

Corpay Cross-Border Named the Official FX Partner for BLAST

November 12, 2025

Providing access to currency risk management and cross-border payments solutions

TORONTO--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Nov. 12, 2025-- Corpay, Inc.* (NYSE: CPAY), a global leader in corporate payments, today announced that its Cross-Border business has entered into a multi-year agreement with the BLAST, a global competitive entertainment company with a mission to bring mega entertainment to the world, taking esports, gaming and other new competitive formats to the next level. Under the agreement, Corpay will serve as their Official Foreign Exchange Partner.

Through this partnership, BLAST will be able to use Corpay Cross-Border's innovative solutions to help mitigate foreign exchange exposure in their daily operations. They'll also benefit from Corpay's award-winning platform, which allows for seamless global payment management from a single point of access.

"Corpay is thrilled to be named the Official FX Partner for BLAST, a true pioneer in the world of esports," said Brad Loder, Chief Marketing Officer, Corpay Cross-Border Solutions. "This partnership marks another major milestone in the evolution of Corpay's global partnership program and represents our entry into the dynamic esports industry. We're confident that BLAST and its network of partners will benefit from Corpay's industry-leading cross-border payment and currency risk management solutions. We look forward to supporting BLAST and contributing to the continued global growth of esports."

"As BLAST continues to expand our global footprint, working with Corpay as our Official FX Partner ensures we can operate efficiently across borders and currencies," said Leo Matlock, Chief Business Officer at BLAST. "Their expertise and innovative payment solutions will help support our growing portfolio of international events and partnerships, and we're proud to be their chosen partner as they enter the esports space alongside their sporting and entertainment partners."
